Matthew Forman is an 18 year old pianist who is a senior at Pewaukee High School in Pewaukee, Wisconsin. He has been studying piano for 11 years and for roughly the past 3 years he has been studying with Shanti Daya. Other teachers of influence have included Angela Peterson, Joe Nuval, and Joan McCallum. He has participated in the Wisconsin Federation of Music Club festival for 6 years, receiving the highest score every year. Along with Federation, he has participated in WSMA State for three years, and in addition to receiving the highest score each year, he has been awarded the highest honor of Exemplary Performance.

Besides piano, Matthew has been heavily involved in French horn and violin both in and out of school. He is part of the first violin section in MYSO's senior symphony, and he has participated in MYSO for 5 years (2 of which were for French horn). In the 2019-2020 concert season, he was also given the opportunity to participate in MYSO's honor chamber program, directed by Frank Almond. In the summer of 2019, he attended the Elm City ChamberFest Camp held on the Yale campus, where he played works by Mendelssohn, Schubert, Elgar, and Prokofiev. At WSMA State, he was also awarded an Exemplary nomination for the first movement of the Bruch Violin Concerto. Outside of music, Matthew is very committed to competitive rock climbing, and intends to pursue neuroscience/pre-med or quantum physics in college.
